Hotel: Delegates are not permitted to spend the evening in the hotel under any circumstances. In addition, delegates from WLPCS should not, for any reason, be in the hotel room of any other delegate from any other school. Being in a hotel room will be considered a major offense. Students wishing to speak with other delegates off-hours should do so in the lobby or in the conference area.

Behavioral expectations:

Delegates are representatives of The Washington Latin Public Charter School, and, as this is a conference with students from all over the country and world, they are also representatives of Washington, DC and The United States. This Model United Nations conference is a school sponsored event and all relevant school rules apply even though we are off campus.

Minor offenses will be handled on a case by case basis. The delegate will be disciplined on a three (3) step system. Minor offenses include, but are not limited to: tardiness, dress code, inappropriate language, and other small behavioral infractions.

Three (3) step discipline:

1st- Reminder from student leadership and sit down conversation.

2nd- Phone call to parents and meet with Porcelli.

3rd- Dismissal from conference and follow up with school deans.

Major offenses will have a two (2) step ladder. Major offenses include, but are not limited to being tardy more than 20 minutes, being in a hotel room, being absent from committee, dishonesty, harassment, use or possession of tobacco, alcohol, or other drugs, and contact from chair about misbehavior during sessions.

Two (2) step discipline:

1st- Contact parents and sit down with faculty advisor, parents, and conference staff and inform WLPCS.

2nd- Dismissal from conference and discipline follow-up with school deans.

Any questions or concerns should be directed to Alexander Porcelli aporcelli@latinpcs.org

Students with concerns during the conference should direct them to Mr. Porcelli or to the student leadership of the club or their committee chair or to the conference Secretariat.
